Dear President

Re: Corrupt activity within the legal profession

You have been made aware of improper practices at play not only from within the legal profession, but also within the Law Society of NSW. I have written to you directly on a number of occasions regarding same.

You are aware too that the conduct involved relates to the breaching of Court Orders and a fraud as perpetrated on the Court by a practising solicitor.

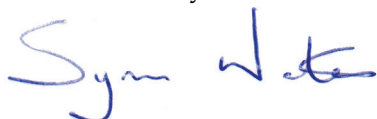

Despite the incontrovertible nature of the evidence of such, you consistently refuse to either comment or respond. I can only conclude that you find acceptable or even condone the behaviours as brought to your attention.

However, perhaps I should be grateful that you, unlike others in various positions of overseeing authority, have not yet sought to threaten me in an attempt to bring about my silence regarding the above said issues of serious solicitor misconduct.

As you are indeed fully aware of the nature of the wrongdoing taking place, you are also fully aware of the intimidatory conduct of those around you. For the purpose of reference, and in relation to same, I attach copy of letter to you of 7th January 2022.

Again, I await your response.

Yours faithfully

Symn Waters
